Creation and Covenant

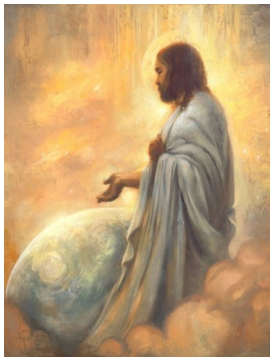

Year 6 - Autumn (1)

Our R.E. Topic this half term is 'Creation and Covenant.
Through this topic your child will have the opportunity to:

Show an understanding of the different literary forms found in the Bible.

Pupils will explore the second account of Creation in Genesis and explain what this account says about human nature and God

Creation and Covenant

The children will briefly explain scientific accounts for the origins of the universe and humanity and give reasoned arguments about whether belief in Creation is compatible with these scientific accounts.
Pupils will describe the work of Catholic scientist, Lemaitre.

Pupils will be able to explain the Church's teaching on the purpose of the second Creation story and the purpose of scientific accounts and make links with Laudato Si' and the term 'stewardship'.

Pupils will explore what the second account of Creation reveals about the dignity and equality of all human beings and consider the ways in which lives could be transformed by appreciating the dignity of all human beings.

The pupils will describe the symbols in the Sacrament of Baptism that point to a Christian's new life in Christ as well as explain some Christian beliefs about the Sacrament of Baptism.

Pupils will show how some understanding of the belief that in Jesus a new covenant is made and the relationship with God can be restored, making links between the new covenant and the beginning of John's Gospel.

Pupils will be able to show understanding of the Christian belief of the first sin and make links to the second story of Creation. The pupils will express a point of view about what the story of The Fall says about human beings.

Pupils will describe and explain the belief that sin damages the relationship with God, others and the created world and reflect on the evidence in the world that human beings have not always lived as God wanted.

Pupils will understand that the Nicene creed allows all believers to make a common statement of their faith and make links between the Nicene Creed and the New Covenant.

